NO SHOW POLICY

Dear Patient:

We understand that there are legitimate reasons for having to cancel an appointment. We ask you to show consideration by calling well in advance if you are unable to keep an appointment so we have the option of offering that appointment to another patient who needs to see the doctor. Please let this letter serve to notify you that if you fail to give us a 24-hour notice of cancellation, there will be a $25.00 cancellation fee billed to your account that cannot be filed to your insurance company.

Thank you,

Estimado Paciente:

Nosotros comprendemos que hay razones legítimas para cancelar una cita. Le rogamos consideración solicitando con antelación la cancelación de su cita y de esta forma poder brindarle la posibilidad a otro paciente necesitado de ser visto por el doctor. Sirva esto como una notificación que si usted no cancela con 24 horas de anticipación, tendrá un recargo de $25.00 y no será cubierto por su seguro,

Gracias,

Dr. Martinez-Noda

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry your treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information. "Protected health information" is information about you, including demographic information that may identify you and relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services.

Uses and disclosure of Protected Health Information.

Your medical information may be used and disclosed by us, our office staff and others outside our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, to pay your health care bills, to support the operation of our practice and any other use required by law.

TREATMENT: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services.

This includes the coordination or management of our health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your medical information necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

PAYMENT: Your information will be used as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review, training of medical students, licensing and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical school students that see patients at our office. We may use a sign in sheet at the registration desk or we may call you by name in the waiting room when your physician is ready to see you. We may also contact you to remind you of your appointment. We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as required by Law. Public Health issues. Communicable Diseases.

Health Oversight. Abuse or Neglect, Drug Administration requirements. Legal Proceedings, Law Enforcement, Coroners, Funeral Director, Organ Donation, Research Criminal Activities, Military Activity and National Security, Workers' Compensation, Inmates; Required Uses and Disclosures. Under the law, we must make disclosures to you and When required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures will be made only with your consent, authorization or opportunity to object unless required by law. You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the physician's practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS

Following is a statement of your rights with respect to your protected health information. You have the right to inspect and copy your protected health information. Under federal law, you may not inspect or copy the following records: psychotherapy notes; information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or use in a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, and protected health information that is subject to law that prohibits access to protected health information. To inspect and copy your medical information you must submit your request in writing to our office. If you request a copy of your medical records, we may charge a fee for the cost of the supplies and mailing charges associated with your request. You have the right to request a restriction of your protected health information. This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of our protected health information not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply. Your physician is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. If physician believes it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of your medical information, your protected health information will not be restricted. You then have the right to use another Healthcare Professional. You have the right to request to receive confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an Alternative location. You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us, upon request, even if you agreed to accept this notice alternatively, i.e. electronically. You may have the right to have your Physician amend your protected health insurance.

If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal. You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made, if any, of our protected health information. We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and will inform you by mail of any changes. You then have the right to object or withdraw as provided in this notice.

Complaints

You may complain to us or to the Secretary of Health and Human Services. If you believe we have violated your privacy rights. You may file a complaint with us by notifying our privacy officer of your complaint. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
